Guest speaker: After a year of preparation, the crew of s/v Emerald set out for a five-week adventure in the Canadian Maritimes with stops in Nova Scotia, St. Pierre - France, Newfoundland, and fabled Sable Island. Good friends, wonder, joy, fatigue, doubt, and a sprinkle of panic provided ingredients for a great sailing adventure.

Bob has been cruising the waters of New England and the Canadian Maritimes for twenty years with his wife, Becky, son Ben, and reluctant dog Belle. He also helps Cathy Monaghan run the Cape Dory website and used to own "Cricket" a Cape Dory 25D, and now owns the only Cape Dory 34 ever made (actually a Pacific Seacraft 34).
